Budget

The board reviewed the current budget.

Old Business

Toni attended the Regional Lake Symposium which covered areas of concern for lakes in our region. The CT experimental station is hoping to have a report on the weed study for the RLA by mid-January. The board will start recruiting lake patrol staff as well as gather information on the ranger program.

The board discussed lake ordinance revision ideas.

New Business

The patrol boat was winterized, had annual maintenance, and it was stored for the season. The sandbar buoy was removed. The board would like to have an informational meeting for the public to attend to learn more about discoveries through the weed studies. The lake level control has been going well, there was an issue with twigs and leaves clogging the sluiceway.

A motion to adjourn was made by Toni, Jenell, second, motion passed by unanimous vote. The meeting ended at 8:25 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Nicole Krol, Secretary for RLA, Nicole-krol@att.net

The next meeting of the Rogers Lake Authority will be on December 8, 2021, 7:30 PM at the Rogers Lake Clubhouse.
